

Personal Data Retention Regulation 2024

This Regulation establishes minimum requirements for retaining, securing, and disposing of personal data held for business purposes.

Part I General

1. Scope. This Regulation applies to customer, employee, supplier, and prospect personal data processed by an organisation.
2. Definitions. Personal data means information that identifies or can reasonably identify an individual.

Part II Retention

4.1 Customer records. An organisation must retain customer records for 5 years from the end of the customer relationship, unless a longer period is required by law or a documented legal hold.

4.2 Disposal. At the end of the retention period, personal data must be securely deleted or irreversibly anonymised.

Part III Incident Notification

7.1 A material personal-data breach must be notified to the supervisory authority within 72 hours after confirmation.
